

Candlewood Knolls Knolls Knews Notes

Happy August!

We've already breezed through one week of the five remaining weeks of summer. While we can't put the brakes on the season, we can certainly take advantage of every day and be grateful we are part of the lake community now celebrating its 93rd anniversary.

The calendar is still filled with activities for all ages! Following the golf cart wash given by the CKCP CITs on Saturday afternoon (8/6), that evening will bring us to the ballfield once again for Bocce Night hosted by Phil and the CKCP crew.

The Progressive Dinner will be held Tues. 8/9 and we hope you will join us for a beautiful evening of friendship, food, and fun. Years ago, the dinner aspect of the event was eliminated since the appetizers and desserts were so plentiful and filling. Bring your appetite. While it's three days short of the next full moon, it will hopefully be a beautiful evening with spectacular waterfront views.

Don't forget to RSVP for the Hoedown next Saturday 8/13. This will be a fun night without the hassle of driving outside the Knolls. Head to the clubhouse which will be transformed into a country western setting that will include good food, drink, and entertainment. Personally, I am a fan of theme parties and appreciative of the details that go into organizing such events. Rumor has it there will be a few "signature cocktails" too.

For the past two issues I have made references to my love of coffee. Just so you know, preparing the Knews Notes requires lots of caffeine! I extend my thanks to those of you who have expressed your appreciation towards my attempts to keep you informed and entertained.

Stay cool!

Denise

COMMUNITY NEWS

SAILBOAT RACES – SUNDAY, JULY 31st

Due to the lack of wind, there was no sailboat race last Sunday. Since there was little wind, I'd thought I'd give Paddleboarding a try. It was challenging and required good balance. I had a few wobbles and did fall once – overall it was great fun and humbling!

Here's a throwback photo of our sailing days when the competition was strong. This was taken at the end of the summer race honoring past president #Will Caterson.

Hope to see you next Sunday – 2pm at South Beach.

DID YOU KNOW...

Pickleball is a rising global sport?

- It's a combination of tennis, badminton and ping-pong. It's a more relaxed sport and easy to learn. It's played with a modified tennis net on a badminton court.
- Pickleball originated in 1965 and has seen a huge growth in participation in the US in the last five years!
- In 2020, 4.2 million people played pickleball in the US – with a 21.3% increase (the highest of any US sport) since 2019.
- It's not just for old people! Although it became popular in senior communities, the fastest growing pickleball playing demographic is people ages 18-54.
- While there is less running, you can still get a good workout and burn calories.
- Today it is played in any state in the US as well as 60 countries. There are 35,000 courts across 9,000 locations and courts are being built at a record rate. It may eventually become an Olympic sport!
- Naples, Florida is known as The Pickleball Capital of the World and is home to the largest dedicated pickleball facility with 64 courts and is also where the US Open Pickleball Championships tournament is held.

SATURDAY - August 6th

3:00 - 5:00pm

CIT Golf Cart Wash

Bring your golf cart down to the clubhouse and donate $5 (or more) to our fantastic four CITs. They have worked hard this summer and are unpaid - it's a great opportunity to clean up those golf carts and show your appreciation for their diligent work. FYI - they'll be using water from the lake via a pump - so, there's no worries about water tank issues.

Saturday, August 6th @ 6:30pm

Bocce/Cornhole Night

Come down to the ballfield and grab a partner to play some bocce or cornhole. Food will be plentiful as usual for $5 per person.

Burgers, dogs, pulled pork and mac-n-cheese will be served. We ask families to bring a shareable side.

Send team signups to ppassaro@cheshire.k12.ct.us and indicate if you are signing up for bocce, cornhole or both! There will also be sign-up sheets at the mailboxes.

The Progressive Dinner Tradition

Since 1996 the ladies of the Knolls have gathered at various homes throughout the community to feast on delicious food and to enjoy connecting with their neighbors - and yes, of course, there is plenty of wine too. Many of the appetizers and desserts are homemade and here are some favorites from your neighbors:

Chicken Bites (Teresa Wohr)

- 2 pkgs Crescent Rolls
- Onion powder to taste
- 1 egg beaten
- 2 boneless chicken breasts
- Flour to coat chicken
- Sesame Seeds

Cut chicken into  $\frac{1}{2}$  inch cubes. Mix flour and onion powder in a shallow dish. Roll chicken cubes in flour mixture. Separate triangles of crescent rolls; Cut each into 2 equal pieces - the long way from tip to base. Add a chicken cube and roll up from pointed side - press down & seal. Place on a cookie sheet and brush with egg; sprinkle with sesame seeds. Bake as directed on crescent roll package. Serve with duck sauce or sweet & sour sauce. Yields approx. 32 pieces

Goat Cheese Spread (Donna DeSantis)

- 8 oz log of Goat Cheese
- Handful of chopped walnuts
- Handful of apple slices - diced small
- Honey

Break up goat cheese in a serving bowl
Add apples & walnuts
Drizzle with honey
Serve with crackers

Bacon Roll-Ups (Cathy Marasco)

- 1 pkg Oscar Mayer Bacon (16 slices)
- 1 loaf of small white Wonder Bread
- Wedge of Blue Cheese

Cut bacon slices in half.
Remove crusts from bread & slice bread in half. Lay out  $\frac{1}{2}$  slice bacon. On top of bacon lay  $\frac{1}{2}$  slice of bread. Take  $\frac{1}{2}$  tspn of cheese and place on end. Roll up starting at cheese side. Lay seam side down.
Bake at 350° for 30 minutes or until slightly crispy. Yields approx. 30 pieces.

Pina Colada Dip (Cathy Neill)

- 8 oz Cream Cheese
- $\frac{3}{4}$  c. Cream of Coconut
- $\frac{1}{2}$  c. Pineapple Juice
- $\frac{1}{2}$  tsp. vanilla
- 8 oz Cool whip

Mix together & serve with assorted fruit

Classic Lemon Pound Cake (Karen Kosakoff)

- 16 tablespoons (2 sticks) unsalted butter, softened but still cool
- 1  $\frac{1}{3}$  cups sugar
- 3 large eggs, plus 3 large egg yolks, at room temperature
- 1  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoons vanilla extract
- 1  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoons water
- $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon salt
- Grated zest of 2 lemons
- 1  $\frac{1}{2}$  cups plain cake flour

- Adjust an oven rack to the middle position and heat the oven to 325 degrees. Grease a 9x5" loaf pan (7  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup capacity). fit a sheet of foil or parchment paper lengthwise in the bottom of the greased pan, pushing it into the corners and up the sides. Fit a second sheet crosswise in the pan in the same manner.
- Beat the butter in the bowl of a standing mixer at medium-high speed until smooth and shiny, about 15 seconds. With the machine still on, sprinkle the sugar in slowly, taking about 30 seconds. Beat the mixture until light, fluffy, and almost white, 4 to 5 minutes, stopping the mixer once or twice to scrape down the sides of the bowl.
- Stir together the eggs, yolks, vanilla, and water in a 2-cup liquid measuring cup. With the mixer running at medium-high speed, add the egg mixture to the butter and sugar in a very slow, thin stream. Finally, beat in the salt and lemon zest.
- Place  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup of the flour in a sieve and sift it over the batter. Fold gently with a rubber spatula, scraping up from the bottom of the bowl, until the flour is incorporated. Repeat twice more, adding flour in  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup increments.
- Scrape the batter into the prepared pan, smoothing the top with a spatula or wooden spoon. Bake until a toothpick or thin skewer inserted into the crack running along the top comes out clean, 70 to 80 minutes. Let the cake rest in the pan for 5 minutes, then invert onto a wire rack. Place a second wire rack on the cake bottom, then turn the cake right-side up. Cool to room temperature, remove and discard the foil, and serve. The cake can be served plain, with fresh fruit of your choice on top, or with ice cream.

Note: To double recipe, bake in large nonstick Bundt pan (14c. capacity); baking time remains same.

Cannoli Dip (Maria Stonecipher)

- 2 c. Ricotta Cheese (whole or skim)
- 8 oz Cream Cheese
- $\frac{1}{2}$  c. powdered confectioners' sugar (more or less to taste)
- 1 tsp vanilla
- 1 c. mini chocolate chips

Mix ricotta & cream cheese until smooth - Add sugar, vanilla, and chips. Chill. Serve with broken pieces of sugar cones or waffle bowls, vanilla wafers, and/or graham crackers.

BOOK REVIEW – Wish You Were Here by Jodi Picoult

Diana O'Toole is on track with her life goals. She will be married by thirty, done having kids by thirty-five, and move out of NYC to the suburbs, all while climbing the professional ladder in the cutthroat art auction world. She's not engaged just yet, but she knows her boyfriend, Finn, a surgical resident, is about to propose on their romantic getaway to the Galápagos—days before her thirtieth birthday – right on time.

But then the Corona virus, that felt worlds away, appears in the city, and on the eve of their departure, Finn breaks the news: It's all hands-on-deck at the hospital, and he has to stay behind. You should still go, he assures her, since it would be a shame for the nonrefundable trip to go to waste. Reluctantly she goes.

Diana's dream vacation goes awry. Her luggage is lost, the Wi-Fi is nearly nonexistent, and the hotel they'd booked is shut down due to the pandemic. In fact, the whole island is now under quarantine, and she is stranded until the borders reopen. Completely isolated, she must venture beyond her comfort zone. Slowly, she carves out a connection with a local family.

In the Galápagos Islands, where Darwin's theory of evolution by natural selection was formed, Diana finds herself examining her relationships, her choices, and herself—and wondering if when she goes home, she too will have evolved into someone completely different.

This story carries you along as described above but has a big plot twist at the end that stops you in your tracks. This author is known for making you think and wonder, and this book is no exception.

Happy Reading – Maureen Clegg
